Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

TAMARA was closest in pursuit of the lone leader up the backstretch, challenged from outside past the three-eighths pole, fought on even terms entering the lane, put SILENT LAW away in upper stretch and drew off under mild hand urging. SILENT LAW broke well and set the tone early, took pressure from TAMARA to the outside with three furlongs remaining, resisted to the top of the stretch, then yielded to the winner and stayed on for a clear second. ANG N ASH tracked the speed outside CHISMOSA up the backstretch, lost ground three to four wide around the bend and churned on to earn third. CHISMOSA chased from off the rail up the backstretch, fell out of range two to three wide on the turn and weakened in the drive. BAELA climbed early giving chase behind SILENT LAW, dropped back on the inside around the bend and had little left for the stretch run.
